

I've been thinking of you!

► The Catholic Church needs you!

Dear _____

My church community is offering a course about the Catholic Faith that I believe you'd be interested in. It'll answer your questions. It'll be a safe place to explore your spirituality with people who care about you.

If you've been thinking about becoming a member of the Catholic Church, or if you're just interested in finding out more about the Catholic Faith, I invite you to attend the Inquiry Classes that my parish offers.

Afterward, if you want to continue the journey of faith, you'll be welcomed into the RCIA ("Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults") process. Later, during a wonderful celebration on Easter weekend, you'll receive the blessings of whichever Sacraments you've not yet received: Baptism, Holy Communion, and Confirmation.

And to this invitation, I add my personal comments:

Come to our Q&A sessions to find answers to questions like:

- What is faith? and ... how you get more of it?
- Is "faith" the same as "belief"?
- What do Catholics believe and why is it different from other faith traditions"?
- How different is it really?
- What's going on in Mass?
- How do Catholics interpret the Bible?
- Do Catholics worship the Saints & Mary?
- What's what in the Church (a guided tour)
- Who's who in the Church (from the pope to the people)
- Catholic prayers & practices
- And anything else you want to ask about.
