Pope Benedict XVI

"Nothing that makes up the activity of the apostles is the product of their own capabilities."

"It is not a question of honors, but of service to be carried out with simplicity and availability, imitating our teacher and Lord, who did not come to be served but to serve, and who in the Last Supper washed the feet of the apostles, asking them to do the same." (Pope Benedict XVI, April 22, 2005)

Pope Francis

"If I don't succeed in being a servant of the Gospel, my life isn't worth anything! ..."

"[The] Gospel, this message of salvation, has two destinations that are linked: the first, to awaken faith, and this is evangelization; the second, to transform the world according to God's plan, and this is the Christian animation of society. But they aren't two separate things, they are one mission: to take the Gospel with the witness of our life transforms the world! This is the way: to take the Gospel with the witness of our life." (Pope Francis, October 4, 2013)
