

My dear little one, know that you will soon find that My unfailing love for you is priceless. You are being protected in the shadow of My wings. Come and feast on the abundance of My house; all that is good for you I am giving to you.

Come and drink from the river of My delights; they will flow without end into your life.

This is how I love you!

Psalm 36:7,8

Look at Me, for I am compassionate and gracious toward you; I am slow to anger even when you turn away from Me; I am abounding in love. My faithfulness is without end. As you call out to Me, I turn to you and give you My mercy. I grant you My strength and I will save you from troubles. I am giving you a sign of My goodness – a sign that even your enemies will see so that they will be put to shame. For I, your Lord, am helping you and comforting you.
